

Docu Center

The docu center in Fuga is a central 'inbox' for external documents (lab or Symphony). For example, you can automatically enter patient's laboratory results, then link them to the appropriate patient or consultation. You can also save your order vouchers and create new ones.

Under the practice files in the docu center you can store the documents that relate to the internal operation of your practice. You can also search for documents in the docu center.